Basic education in Washington state is defined by the Legislature (RCW 28A.150.210). As required by state law, OSPI develops the state's learning standards (RCW 28A.655.070) and oversees the assessment of the learning standards for state and federal accountability purposes. Learning standards define what all students need to know and be able to do at each grade level.

This book is perfect for my husband and kids because they are always generous with their kisses for mommy and stingy with their daddy kisses. He usually has to blackmail them in one way or another. I agree that it is probably best one-on-one.

Kisses for Daddy by Frances Watts

The book is about a little baby bear, explaining to his dad why he loves him. Through out the story, the little bears gives examples to his dad about why he loves him so much. For example the little bear says I love when "daddy wipes away the little bear's tears and tells him not to cry."

Using a gentle, tell-it-like-it-is tone this book is targeted at children coming to terms with shared parenting. The story follows two siblings and examines a range of family situations in a realistic and straightforward way. It considers the practicalities of two houses and the not-always-good emotions associated with it.
